

PROPERTYROOM.COM ANNOUNCES NEW CFO, AARON THOMPSON Seasoned Finance Executive and Former NVTC Emerging Growth CFO of the Year

FREDERICK, MD, 27 October 2015 – Leading online auction site, PropertyRoom.com, which conducts "$1, No Reserve" public auctions for law enforcement agencies nationwide, recently announced a new addition to the executive management team. Aaron Thompson is PropertyRoom.com's new Chief Financial Officer and will be responsible for leading financial and administrative operations for the organization.

Prior to joining PropertyRoom.com, Aaron was the Co-Founder and CFO for Contact Solutions, Vice President, Finance & Administration for iBasis Speech Solutions, and served Deloitte & Touche LLP, American Psych Systems, and other companies in director and senior-level management positions.

In 2012, Aaron was awarded the Northern Virginia Technology Council's Emerging Growth CFO of the Year which recognizes chief financial officers for achievement and excellence in promoting the development of the Greater Washington region's technology community.

"Aaron's impressive background with growing technology companies makes him a great fit for PropertyRoom.com," says Andrew J. Nash, CEO of PropertyRoom.com. "I am excited to have him onboard and for him be a part of our leadership team."

"I'm excited to join the passionate team here at PropertyRoom.com," said Aaron. "In addition to overseeing the financial and administrative operations, I look forward to working directly with CEO, Andrew J. Nash, in continuing to lead PropertyRoom.com to a bright future."

Aaron is a CPA and holds a Master of Business Administration from Loyola University Maryland and Bachelor of Science, Accounting from West Virginia University.
