Online police auction site unloads diamonds and gold

MISSION VIEJO, CA, 22 MARCH 2007-- From diamond bracelets to gold coins to three stone diamond rings, PropertyRoom.com simply has too many luxury items and needs to auction them as soon as possible. The largest site for online police auctions, PropertyRoom.com today announced a liquidation blowout of its extensive collection of diamond jewelry and gold coins.

“One man’s loss is another man’s find,” said PJ Bellomo, Chief Operating Officer of PropertyRoom.com. “And we’ve got some nice finds. Diamond jewelry appraised at over $10,000, several gold coins and even a couple of authentic gold Rolexes. Some fortunate bidders will walk away with amazing deals.”

Over the next several days the site will offer bidders an unusually large number of diamond and gold items. Among other items, the auctions include a men’s 20 carat diamond bracelet, an uncirculated genuine American Eagle gold coin, a $10,000 emerald cut diamond ring and a $19,000 gold Rolex. For extremely valuable items, such as the diamond rings and Rolexes, listings typically include an authentication statement and an estimated value provided by an independent expert.

These special diamond and gold collection auctions begin closing today, March 22nd and will run through the end of the month.

About PropertyRoom.com

Founded by former police officers, PropertyRoom.com auctions-off seized, unclaimed and surplus goods from law enforcement departments and municipalities. With nearly 1,000 agencies contracted nationwide, auctions run the gamut of categories: from laptops, electronics and tools, to watches, jewelry, bikes, cars and boats. PropertyRoom.com takes physical possession of merchandise, conducts online auctions and then ships to winning bidders. This is all done in a virtually fraud-free environment, with PropertyRoom.com managing the payment process and distributing proceeds back to local communities.
